Foreword

Wayne Technical Institute has achieved greater steps than ever before toward friendliness, spirit, and tradition during the 1965-66 school year. The administration, faculty, and students have joined in their efforts to make this long-sought-after goal of higher education possible. Through the pages of our 1966 Greenbriar, we have tried to show you the factors which have helped lead us to this accomplishment.

Friendliness is Wayne Zechs' atmosphere . . .

Spirit and tradition instilled in the students

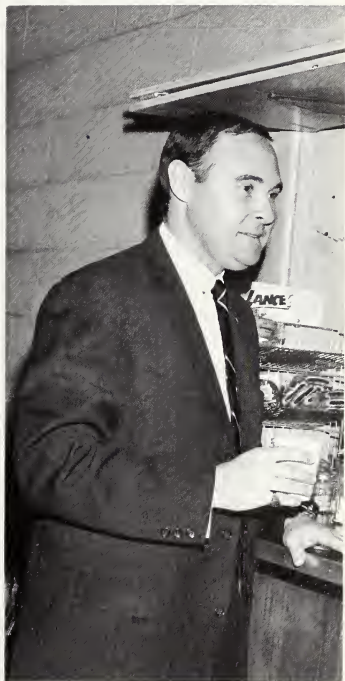

Dedication

We, the members of the annual staff, wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Harry J. Archer who has helped us in so many ways as our friend and advisor—not only to the annual staff but to the entire student body in his position as Dean of Students. His inspiration and leadership have meant much to the students at Wayne Technical Institute. To you, Mr. Archer, we dedicate our most precious gift—the 1966 Greenbriar.

With humbleness and pride . . .

As Dean of Students, Mr. Archer periodically checks student records.

Mr. Archer relaxes with a cup of java.

Conclusion

Above all, these will be remembered . . .

the Spirit of Friendliness and Tradition

From the Editors . . .

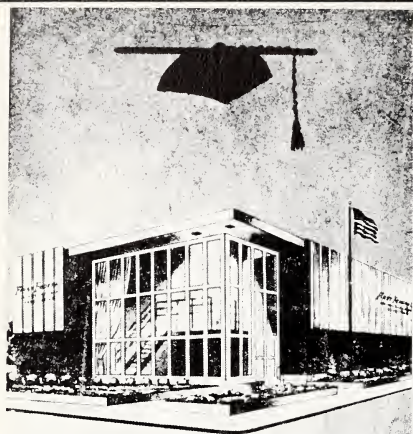

The Greenbriar is finished—as is the school year. Recorded permanently, the images of friendliness, spirit, and traditions of this 1965-66 school year will keep fresh and alive in the minds of all, day-by-day experiences that helped to prepare us for the years ahead.

This book is the symbol of that which each student will remember—the friendliness, spirit, and tradition which walked hand in hand at Wayne Technical Institute.

The seal of the Wayne Technical Institute is a circular emblem with a scalloped outer edge. Inside the circle, the words "WAYNE TECHNICAL INSTITUTE" are written in a circular path. The center of the seal features a shield with various symbols, including a book and a torch. The text "Our Advertisers" is superimposed over the center of the seal.

Our Advertisers

Business men in our community show their support and interest in Wayne Technical Institute by purchasing advertisements for our annual publication. Without their help we would not be able to publish this—your 1966 Greenbriar. Show your appreciation by patronizing their stores.
